

Gershman Mortgage's Fairlen Browning Selected for Leadership Clarksville 2026 Class

Community-focused leader joins esteemed program as company marks multiple 2025 achievements.

CLARKSVILLE, TN, UNITED STATES, September 18, 2025 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Gershman Mortgage proudly announces that Fairlen Browning, Senior Loan Officer (NMLS# 156660), has been named to the Leadership Clarksville Class of 2026, a distinguished program that develops and connects community leaders across Montgomery County. The honor comes during a milestone year for Gershman Mortgage, which celebrated 14 loan officers recognized in Scotsman Guide's 2025 Top Originators rankings and received the USDA 2025 Underwriting Quality Champion Award for excellence in rural lending.

Founded in 1987, Leadership Clarksville brings together professionals from diverse fields—education, business, healthcare, military, public service, the arts, and the nonprofit sector—to strengthen civic engagement and build meaningful connections. The program's goals include building channels of communication among leaders, connecting them with community issues, equipping participants with insights rather than prescriptive solutions, and engaging citizens in a non-partisan manner.

"I got my professional start working at Pioneer Military Loans. When they went out of business, I had a friend who worked at Navy Federal Credit Union, who thought I would be perfect as a mortgage loan officer. I applied to try it out and fell in love! That was 14 years ago!" Fairlen started with Gershman Mortgage in 2024 and, in her words, "I'm so happy to be here – it's nice to have finally found my people."

Browning began her career in the mortgage industry more than 14 years ago, starting with Pioneer Military Loans before transitioning into mortgage lending. After joining Gershman Mortgage in 2024, she quickly became a key member of the Clarksville branch, known for her dedication, professionalism, and heartfelt approach to serving clients and supporting colleagues.

"I'm so proud of Fairlen for being appointed to Leadership Clarksville! She's such an important part of our team, always positive, supportive, and there with a solution to any problem. I can't wait to see the great things she'll do for the Clarksville community!" Shannon Stewart, Senior Loan Officer.

Browning's appointment reflects Gershman Mortgage's ongoing commitment to growing leaders who embody the company's values of honesty, integrity, entrepreneurial spirit, and putting customers first. It also underscores a year of strong performance and recognition for the firm at large—including industry-wide acknowledgment in Scotsman Guide's 2025 Top Originators and a national USDA quality award recognizing underwriting excellence and consistent support for rural homebuyers.
