EINPresswire.com/ -- Fenix Lighting, the U.S. distributor of Fenix high-performance lighting tools, is pleased to announce the launch of the Fenix PD36R ACE Rechargeable Flashlight, the newest member of the Fenix ACE Series. Designed for professionals and outdoor enthusiasts alike, the PD36R ACE combines impressive brightness with a new level of control.

Delivering up to 3000 lumens of output and a beam that reaches 1362ft (415m), the PD36R ACE is engineered for users who require both power and precision. In addition to its ultra-bright lumen count, its standout feature is the exclusive SET button, located beneath the flashlight's neck. This function enables users to choose how the light operates: Turbo-only output, a simplified three-mode range, or the full suite of modes, including Eco through Turbo, with the ability to deactivate strobe if desired. This operational flexibility makes the PD36R ACE adaptable to a wide range of applications, from tactical scenarios to everyday use.

The flashlight is built from A6061-T6 aluminum with a premium HAIII hard-anodized finish, ensuring toughness for demanding environments. It also features a hidden USB-C charging port that enhances its IP68 waterproof rating. The PD36R ACE is powered by an included 5000mAh, supported by a battery-level indicator so users can monitor readiness at a glance. Measuring just 5.75 inches in length and weighing 6.41 ounces, the PD36R ACE delivers runtimes of more than 63 hours on Eco.
