

Silicon Beach Film Festival 2025: A Celebration Of Independent Films

HOLLYWOOD, CA, UNITED STATES, September 18, 2025 / EINPresswire.com/ -- International filmmakers from around the globe attended the 10th Annual Silicon Beach Film Festival at the TCL Chinese Theatres in Hollywood. The popular L.A. based festival presented a wide variety of shorts and feature films on two screens over the course of a week - Friday, September 5th through Thursday, September 12th. "It was very exciting for everyone , and we received much positive feedback", said Jon Gursha, Festival Director. The festival opened with a red carpet kick-off party at the TCL Chinese Theatres that included a professional photographer. "Bringing people together to see the films is what the festival is all about", added Jon Gursha, Festival Director.

In all, the Silicon Beach Film Festival 2025 screened over 400 films, and presented filmmakers with over 100 film and screenplay awards at the closing night awards party."The festival had something for everyone, with a program that featured films from all genres", said Peter Greene, Festival Programmer.
