Common Financial Issues in Marketing Firms

Overspending on projects, irregular revenue, and late payments are common problems for creative businesses. Many wind up using disjointed tools or depending on manual updates that fall short of giving the complete financial picture in the absence of a dedicated bookkeeper service. If not tracked in real time, freelance bills, ad platform fees, and recurring software payments may be overlooked.

Outsource bookkeeping services

The fast pace of project execution can cause even well-staffed teams to lag behind on tax preparation and reconciliations. Agencies run the risk of missing deductions, incurring late fees, or having trouble making accurate forecasts as a result. Profit margins, client onboarding capabilities, and employment decisions may all be impacted by these problems.

Bookkeeping Solutions from IBN Technologies

IBN Technologies delivers remote bookkeeping services that integrate seamlessly into the agency environment. Whether working with fixed retainers, performance-based billing, or hourly creative fees, their bookkeepers maintain clean, compliant records tailored to marketing operations.

- Campaign-level income and expense classification
- Weekly bank and credit card reconciliations
- Timely tracking of client invoices and vendor bills
- Payroll coordination for in-house and freelance teams
- Integration with platforms like QuickBooks, Xero, and FreshBooks
- Monthly budget variance and profitability reporting

These online bookkeeping services allow agencies to focus on delivering client outcomes, while IBN handles the back-end accounting and bookkeeping. By removing financial guesswork, firms gain stronger cash flow control and audit-ready books.
