“Partnering with Express Service Protection is another important step in expanding the range of reputable providers available on Chaiz,” said Reto Bolliger, Co-Founder and CEO of Chaiz. “We are committed to giving drivers a simple, transparent way to shop for vehicle

Express Service Protection is now a Chaiz Partner

To join the Chaiz Partner Network, providers must complete a certification process that checks licensing, financial stability, claims history, and customer satisfaction. Express Service Protection has completed this process and is now fully integrated into the Chaiz system. Their coverage plans can be quoted instantaneously, paid via secure checkout, and are covered by the Chaiz Promise.

“We’re excited about working with Chaiz because we see a shared commitment to transparency, innovation, and putting customers first,” said Todd Kanney, Vice President of Sales at Express Service Protection. “Together, we can deliver more value to drivers while simplifying the vehicle protection process.”

The partnership supports Chaiz’s growth as a leading online marketplace for extended vehicle protection, giving U.S. drivers more ways to protect their vehicles and their budgets while shopping on their own terms.
