& CEO*

“We are proud to join forces with AAIS, tapping into their comprehensive library of filed rates and forms to streamline insurance product development for our MGA and carrier clients,” said Peter Cooper, Chief Executive Officer of VRC Insurance Systems. “Being part of the AAIS Partner Program strengthens our ability to deliver tailored, compliant insurance solutions, empowering our customers to bring innovative P&C products to market with greater speed and confidence.”

Through this collaboration, VRC gains access to AAIS's product suite, enabling more efficient implementation of admitted lines of business within its Verity insurance platform. Verity is an all-in-one system that allows MGAs and carriers to quote, issue policies, manage claims, and handle premium accounting from a centralized interface. The integration provides AAIS Members with access to tools and technology designed to enable faster adoption of admitted products, more efficient configuration, and streamlined workflows, while reducing administrative burdens and costs. Members will also gain access to compliant, up-to-date content that supports growth and competitiveness in the marketplace.

“The AAIS Partner Program is designed to connect our Members with trusted technology and service providers who can enhance their competitiveness,” said Werner Kruck, President and Chief Executive Officer of AAIS. “Welcoming VRC Insurance Systems, with its proven expertise and industry-leading Verity platform, demonstrates our Program's value in driving efficiency and innovation across the P&C marketplace.”

The AAIS Partner Program connects AAIS Member carriers and MGAs with select technology and service providers that support speed, innovation, and regulatory alignment.
