

Renegade Sparkling Lemon Wine Wins Major Awards After Debut Release

Family-crafted sparkling wine made from 100% lemons earns Gold Medal at WSWA and Best Wine at St. Augustine Festival

ATLANTA, GA, UNITED STATES,
September 22, 2025 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Renegade Lemonade today announced that its newly released Renegade Sparkling Lemon Wine has captured two of the industry's most coveted honors: a Gold Medal at the 2025 WSWA Wine & Spirits Competition and Best Wine at the 2025 St. Augustine Food & Wine Festival.

Renegade Sparkling Lemon Wine

Released in Q4 2024, Renegade Sparkling Lemon Wine represents the brand's bold expansion into the sparkling category. Crafted from 100% lemons and no grapes, the wine delivers a crisp, citrus-forward effervescence that has already won over both judges and festival-goers.

These awards validate our mission to elevate and celebrate the lemon. Winning Best Wine and a Gold Medal with our very first sparkling wine is an incredible honor.”

Alexandra Reiter, President & Chief Lemon Officer

The bottle design carries personal meaning for the family-owned brand. The vibrant lemon blossom artwork on each label was painted by co-founders Brady and Alexandra Reiter's daughter, Lily MacMurdo, whose work has earned awards across the Southeast. Her design captures the energy of the lemon tree and celebrates the company's mission to elevate and celebrate the lemon.

“These awards are an incredible validation of everything we believe in,” said Alexandra Reiter, President & Chief Lemon Officer of Renegade Lemonade. “From the beginning, our goal has been to honor the lemon in ways no one else has dared. Seeing Renegade Sparkling Lemon Wine embraced at this level shows we're on the right path.”

The recognition builds on Renegade Lemonade's growing reputation. In 2024, the company's flagship still lemon wine earned People's Choice – Best Wine at the same St. Augustine festival. Now, with its sparkling debut claiming both industry and consumer accolades, the brand is cementing its place as a true innovator in American wine.
