After looking up salons in Elmwood park Caroline's Hair Design came up saying it had been in business for 20+ years, so I felt an establishment being open for that long must be doing something right. After meeting Anila I know that this women and her husband ARE doing something right. Anila was not only GORGEOUS but also kind and knowledgeable about how to cut and style my hair. Her husband was kind and attentive which made me feel as if I was around people who cared about their work and the experience of their clients. "I've been going to Caroline's since I moved to the area about a year ago. I was nervous about going somewhere new after having gone to my previous stylist for over 5 years, but after my first appointment I knew I found my new salon. Anila has worked with me to achieve the look I want, and she is always working to make me feel my best. I've been getting a blonde balayage my past few appointments and I love the way my hair looks and feels. When I see my hair appointment coming up on the calendar I always get excited because I know
