International food, wine, and music festival to feature worldwide hybrid dance challenge, 200+ vendors, and family events.

DAYTONA BEACH, FL, UNITED STATES, September 25, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Daytona Beach International Food, Wine & Boo Fest will be held for the first time at the Riverfront Esplanade and Manatee Island on Sunday, October 26, 2025, bringing together restaurants, food vendors, live music, family activities, and an attempt at a global record dance challenge.

The festival, organized by Saving Grace Services Inc. dba Team Grace Events, will showcase more than 200 vendors and include restaurants, spirits, desserts, beverages, and specialty items. Alongside the food and beverage offerings, the event will feature multiple stages of live entertainment, cultural performances, costume contests, and Halloween-themed family activities.

A Global Dance Challenge

The festival's centerpiece is an attempt to set a record for the most people simultaneously performing the "Michael Jackson's Thriller" dance, both in Daytona Beach and via livestream worldwide. Attendees in person will join thousands of remote participants through a ticketed livestream and a dedicated Thriller Dance Challenge sign-up page.

Festival organizers have invited groups around the world to register in advance and participate virtually, ensuring broad international representation.
