UiPath FUSION takes place at Wynn Las Vegas, September 30 – October 2, 2025, bringing together thousands of executives, practitioners, and experts to share how AI, agents, and agentic automation are creating a new world of work.

FUSION is for leaders ready to turn AI and automation into measurable value. Attendees will discover how to orchestrate agents, robots, people, and systems with governance and security embedded from the start. UiPath FUSION's theme is "Where Agentic AI Meets ROI," underscoring the event's commitment to bringing together the world's most forward-thinking business and technology leaders. Through inspiring keynotes, breakout sessions, and hands-on training, attendees will get an inside look at the journey from pilot to production, from theory to transformation, and from automation in silos to orchestrated, intelligent systems of work.

Lydonia will be hosting the following sessions:
