Below are just a few of the many positive testimonials from customers who were highly impressed by RING Jewellers' communication and exceptional craftsmanship:

"I'm so happy with my new ring. I inherited an old fashioned ring from mum. I asked for a new, modern setting in white gold with my mum's original gold at the base. I could not be more pleased with my new ring. ITS BEAUTIFUL. My mum's original yellow gold is next to my skin. The original 3 huge diamonds are reset in a modern white gold, as requested. There are no words to express how pleased I am. My mum would love that I am now wearing her diamonds and gold, but for me! I would recommend RING to anyone looking for something beautiful and different. I'm soooooooooo happy with my ring."

"Our experience with Ring Jewellers has been amazing! Alex helped us from start to finish, and their professionalism shone through! Even not living in Brighton, everything went nicely and smoothly. We kept in touch by email, and our rings arrived directly to our door once ready! We enjoyed the entire process, and we truly love our rings! Highly recommended :)"

"I had my engagement and wedding rings custom designed and made at RING and have been absolutely delighted by the expertise and service I received from start to finish. I'm based in London but travelled to Brighton to find RING as they were so much more helpful, friendly and knowledgeable than anyone I found in London. I will treasure both rings forever and recommend RING Jewellers far and wide!"

"I had a ring left to me by a great aunt that although beautiful was old fashioned and on a huge mount and it was left sitting in a box. I visited RING after reading reviews online, and Stuart helped me to decide how to redesign the ring into something I could wear everyday day, in fact I got two rings made from the one, they even discounted the price of the original mount from the total price as the gold couldn't be used again. I was quoted 8 weeks but in fact my jewellery was ready in 6 weeks. My rings are beautifully made the craftsmanship could not be faulted at all. I would thoroughly recommend anyone go along to RING you will receive the very best customer service Stuart listened to me and also gave very good advice I couldn't be happier with the end result."

The RING Jewellers team consistently goes above and beyond to create beautiful custom-made rings and jewellery for every client.
