Constella is at the forefront of tackling one of the most urgent challenges in cybersecurity — the explosion of identity exposure and digital risk”

Andres Andreu, CEO of Constella Intelligence

a global leader in identity risk intelligence, today announced the appointment of Andres Andreu as Chief Executive Officer. Andres succeeds Kevin Senator, who has stepped down from the role.

Andres previously served as Constella's Chief Operating Officer and Chief Information Security Officer, where he played a pivotal role in shaping the company's strategy and advancing its position as a trusted provider of identity-centric digital risk protection and intelligence solutions. With over two decades of experience in cybersecurity leadership, Andres has been a recognized voice in the industry and a driving force behind Constella's innovation in protecting organizations from identity-led threats.

Constella expressed its gratitude to Kevin Senator for his leadership and contributions to the company.

As CEO, Andres will focus on expanding Constella's leadership in identity risk intelligence, strengthening partnerships, and accelerating innovation to meet the evolving needs of enterprises, governments, and technology providers worldwide.
