EINPresswire.com/ -- DOCUmentation,

Texas' largest privately-held managed services provider (MSP), has announced its membership in the Managed Service Provider Association of America (MSPAA). The MSPAA is a national organization dedicated to advancing the managed services industry by establishing best practices, supporting professional development, and fostering collaboration among providers.

This milestone underscores DOCUmentation's continued commitment to delivering best-in class managed IT, managed print, process automation, document management software, VoIP, and unified communications to organizations across the state.

Founded in 1990, DOCUmentation has grown from a copier dealer into a statewide technology partner with offices in San Antonio, Houston, Dallas–Fort Worth, and Midland. By joining the MSPAA, DOCUmentation strengthens its industry ties and further positions itself as a trusted provider for mission-critical services across diverse industries, including legal, education, manufacturing, construction, engineering, healthcare, automotive, and more.

Serving organizations of every size, DOCUmentation supports more than 3,000 customers across Texas—from small businesses to major enterprises—and partners with established names ranging from all three NBA franchises—the San Antonio Spurs, Houston Rockets, and Dallas Mavericks—to well-known organizations like Solo Stove, the Alamo, Rice University Athletics, and Dickies Arena.

"MSPAA sets strong standards for our industry, and we're proud to be part of it," said Art Clarke, Vice President – Managed Technology Services at DOCUmentation. "This partnership reaffirms our focus on keeping Texas businesses secure and future-ready.”

DOCUvation’s comprehensive service portfolio includes:

- Managed IT and Cybersecurity Solutions for businesses of all sizes
- Managed Print Services with local, rapid-response support and integrated printing software for smarter management
- Voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP) solutions for flexible, reliable calling from any location
- Unified Communications as a Service (UCaaS) to keep teams connected across locations
- Process Automation and Workflow Optimization Apps to streamline daily tasks
- Document Management Software designed to simplify operations and maintain compliance

With more than 35 years of experience and a statewide team of technology experts, DOCUvation continues to expand its role as a trusted advisor for Texas businesses navigating today’s fast-changing technology landscape.
