72-Year-Old Music Veteran Makes Her Mark in Upcoming Independent Film

CHICAGO, IL, UNITED STATES,
September 24, 2025 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Acclaimed singer-songwriter Robyn Williams proudly announces that her original song "Quiet Calm" will be featured in the upcoming independent film Lipstick, directed by award-winning filmmaker Kimberly Conner. The highly anticipated screening will take place on October 1, 2025, at 7:00 PM at Classic Cinemas in Oak Park, IL, with even more screenings scheduled across other states.

Lipstick stars Kimberly Winbush, Carl Gilliard, and Trisha Mann Grant, with a powerful score by Grammy-winning composer Rob Diggy Morrison. This collaboration brings together visionary filmmakers, accomplished actors, and celebrated musicians for a project that promises to resonate deeply with audiences.

"I am deeply honored and truly privileged to have been part of such a dynamic and powerful production like Lipstick," said Robyn. "This experience has been both inspiring and unforgettable, and I am grateful to share my artistry within a project of such vision and impact."

"As Robyn's publicist, it brings me so much joy to see her artistry continue to shine on such an important stage," said Desirae L. Benson, Multi-Award-Winning Entertainment Publicist. "Her journey from the military to a celebrated career in music is inspiring, and having her voice included in Lipstick is a powerful reminder that creativity and impact have no age limit."
