“This recognition is a reflection of the strong partnerships we've built with independent resorts across our markets,” said Travis Bary, Co-President of Capital Vacations. “Our mission has always been to deliver solutions that improve performance, enhance the owner and guest experience, and ensure long-term sustainability for each resort. We're proud to see that commitment recognized at a national level.”

Unlike large, branded operators, Capital Vacations' model prioritizes the individuality of each property while providing the scale, systems, and expertise comparable to that of a major hospitality company. The company's dual focus on immediate revenue relief through a competitive rental distribution network and sustainable growth via its Capital Vacations Club has positioned it as a trusted partner for resorts navigating today's challenges.

"In a brand environment, the brand comes first. In our model, the independent resort comes first, supported by the strength of Capital Vacations," said Gary Hyde, Executive Vice President of Hospitality at Capital Vacations. "Our ability to honor each resort's character while delivering measurable results is what sets us apart."

As Capital Vacations continues to expand through new management contracts and strategic acquisitions, the company remains dedicated to helping independent resorts thrive. This recognition as the Top Resort Management Services Company 2025 underscores its role as a leader in shaping the future of vacation ownership and resort hospitality.
