The California Turkish American Association (TAAC) is proud to announce the 2nd Annual San Francisco Turkish Festival, taking place on September 27–28, 2025, at Embarcadero Plaza in the heart of San Francisco.

"After last year's success with over 3,000 attendees, this year's Turkish Festival is growing into a two-day cultural celebration, uniting communities from across the Bay Area and beyond. The festival will also include representatives from the American Turko-Tatar Association, Azerbaijan Cultural Society, Kazakh American Association of Silicon Valley, Turkmenistan Citizens, Uyghur Culture Advancement Association, and the Uzbek Community Center.

- Traditional Turkish arts and crafts including Ebru (marbling), calligraphy, Hereke silk carpet weaving (visitors can watch how the world's finest silk carpets are woven), and Kütahya ceramics

- Turkish cuisine with a wide variety of food vendors serving authentic flavors

- Special exhibits including Anatolian Kangal and Anatolian Shepherd dogs — living symbols of Turkish heritage

"Our goal is to bring people together through art, music, food, and shared traditions," said the Board of the California Turkish American Association. "This festival is not just for the Turkish community but for everyone who wants to experience and celebrate the beauty of Turkish and Turkic culture. "The 2nd San Francisco Turkish Festival is free and open to the public.
