- Spiral Staircase Inspired by Whiskey Barrels: An iconic design element that creates a sense of journey and discovery as guests move between spaces.

Visitors are invited to explore the art of whiskey-making through educational distillery tours, which begin in the Whiskey Church, travel through the heart of the production facility, and conclude with a guided tasting at an intimate sensory tasting bar.

"We are beyond proud to see the Laws Whiskey Sanctuary recognized by AIA Colorado," said Al Laws, Founder and CEO of Laws Whiskey House "BOSS.architecture's vision brought our story to life, creating a space that reflects our values of patience, craft, and authenticity."
