

Family-Owned Sixx Gun Music Reinvents Itself as Las Vegas' Boutique Hub for Musicians

Las Vegas' family-owned Sixx Gun Music reopens with The Bones and announces fall events: Ozzy Tribute, David Pastorius Clinic, Rock n' Roll Fashion Show.

LAS VEGAS, NV, UNITED STATES, September 25, 2025 / EINPresswire.com/ -- In a city dominated by big-box chains, family-owned Sixx Gun Music is standing out by transforming into a boutique hub for musicians — complete with its own café, stage, and VIP green room.

The relaunch was celebrated with a packed Re-Grand Opening concert on August 9th, headlined by local rock favorites The Bones. Their high-energy performance set the tone for what Sixx Gun Music is building: a home base for Las Vegas musicians to connect, create, and perform.

Family-owned and operated: Daniel and Alicia with their kids, Angel and Matthew, at Sixx Gun Music's newly relaunched boutique store in Las Vegas.

Alicia Anderson-Margasa, Co-Owner of Sixx Gun Music

New at Sixx Gun Music:

The Player's Café – a sit-down spot offering coffee and conversation.
