

Wireless Hall of Fame Welcomes Five Visionaries

Milestone 25th Anniversary Celebration

ARLINGTON, VA, UNITED STATES,
September 30, 2025 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- The Wireless History Foundation (WHF) celebrated the 25th anniversary of the Wireless Hall of Fame with the induction of five distinguished leaders who have shaped wireless communications. This year's ceremony, held at the Ritz-Carlton, Pentagon City on September 29, recognized Ken Horowitz, Neville Ray, Jesse Russell, Liz Sachs, and Tom Stroup for their outstanding achievements and enduring impact on the industry.

"It is hard to imagine a world where wireless technology and services are not a part of our daily lives. The Wireless Hall of Fame is an initiative meant to recognize the pioneers who made the wireless industry what it is today," said Linda Lievens, Interim Executive Director of the Wireless History Foundation. "We are thrilled and honored to welcome the Class of 2025 Inductees into the Wireless Hall of Fame."
