

Jacquin's Introduces Corporate Gifting Program Highlighting Philadelphia-Made Spirits

Union-made, family-owned, and Philadelphia proud—Jacquin's introduces curated corporate gifts with custom spirit selections.

PHILADELPHIA, PA, UNITED STATES, September 25, 2025 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Jacquin's, Philadelphia's own union-made and family-owned spirits house, is proud to announce the launch of its new Corporate Gifting Program. For more than a century, Jacquin's has been crafting spirits in Pennsylvania, and this tradition now extends to a curated selection of gifts designed for employees, clients, and partners.

The program showcases a variety of locally made offerings, including:

Jacquin's has been part of Philadelphia's story for generations, and this program celebrates that heritage while helping companies thank their teams in a meaningful way.”

John Cooper, Owner and CEO

- The Roaster's Daughter Espresso Martini
- Jacquin's Rock & Rye
- Pennsylvania Dutch Egg Nog
- Union Forge Vodka

Each bottle represents both quality craftsmanship and a taste of Philadelphia pride - making them a memorable way for companies to show appreciation.

To add an extra personal touch, select bottles are available with custom labels, allowing businesses to create a truly unique gift experience.

"Jacquin's has been part of Philadelphia's story for generations, and this program celebrates that heritage while helping companies thank their teams in a meaningful way," said John Cooper, Owner and CEO.

The Jacquin's Corporate Gifting Program is now available to explore and order.
