

Peace Through Trade Blockchain Honored at United Nations SDG Leaders Luncheon

Peace Through Trade Blockchain was honored at UNGA80's SDG Leaders Luncheon as the private-sector leader advancing sustainable digital trade worldwide.

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, September 26, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Peace Through Trade (PTT), one of the world's most energy-efficient and regulation-first sustainable Layer-1 Proof-of-Work blockchains, was officially honored at the United Nations' 80th General Assembly during the inaugural SDG Leaders Luncheon at UN Headquarters in New York.

PTT was recognized as the exclusive private-sector leader, joining two other distinguished honorees: Panama's Nature Pledge (Public Sector) and The Ocean Elders (Non-Profit Sector). Together, these honorees represent global leadership across government, civil society, and technology, advancing the UN's Sustainable Development Goals.

Founding Partners Erai and Kyleigha Beckmann were present to receive the honorary recognition on behalf of PTT. Erai Beckmann also participated in a fireside chat with more than 80 global changemakers—including government leaders, investors, and philanthropists—highlighting PTT's mission of World Peace Through Trade and its unique role as a bridge between blockchain innovation and sustainable governance.

Built over 4.5 years, PTT combines advanced AI integration, built with Singapore's Regulatory framework guidelines for blockchain, and a sustainable Proof-of-Work design. Its mission is to empower governments, businesses, and communities through secure, transparent, and insured digital infrastructure that uplifts global commerce while supporting sustainable development.
