

KFFO Afro Steakhouse Brings Afro-Inspired Steaks and Cultural Programming to Houston

KFFO Afro Steakhouse highlights Afro-inspired steaks, traditional sides, and cultural programs that reflect Houston's diverse dining community.

HOUSTON, TX, UNITED STATES, September 26, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- KFFO Afro Steakhouse is offering Houston diners a distinctive dining experience that combines steakhouse traditions with Afro-inspired flavors. Located at 14097 Westheimer Rd, Houston, TX 77082, the restaurant presents a menu rooted in West African spice traditions alongside familiar steakhouse classics, while also serving as a hub for cultural programming.

KFFO's culinary selections emphasize quality ingredients and careful seasoning. Signature items include the Faya Suya, a grilled beef fillet prepared with authentic Yaji spices; slow-braised goat meat garnished with herbs; seasoned lamb chops; and a fusion shawarma-style fajita wrap layered with grilled meat, peppers, onions, and a light vegetable crema in a choice of flour or corn-wheat tortillas. Traditional accompaniments such as Jollof rice, caramelized plantains, and French fries are available to round out the menu.

private gatherings. These programs are designed to bring food and culture together, reflecting Houston's diversity and providing opportunities for community connection.

"We created KFFO Afro Steakhouse to celebrate flavors we love while offering Houston a fresh dining option," said Michael Adalaja, Spokesperson for KFFO Afro Steakhouse. "Our goal is to bring authentic Afro flavors into a modern steakhouse setting and to build a space where good food and culture meet."

Houston is widely regarded as one of the most diverse food cities in the United States. KFFO Afro Steakhouse contributes to that identity by combining culinary offerings with cultural programming. The restaurant provides dine-in service, carryout, and delivery through major third-party platforms.
