

Two Global Leaders in Energy Healing Announce Strategic Collaboration

Dr. Bradley Nelson and Ahtayaa Leigh unite to launch a partnership that expands the future of energy healing and personal empowerment.

ST. GEORGE, UT, UNITED STATES,
September 26, 2025 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- A new collaboration between two of the world's leading authorities in energy healing is set to reshape the future of the field. Dr. Bradley Nelson, internationally recognized holistic physician and creator of The Emotion Code®, and Ahtayaa Leigh, founder of the Academy of Energy Healing, have come together to share their complementary approaches with a global audience.

Dr. Bradley Nelson, founder of Discovery Healing (left), and Ahtayaa Leigh, founder of the Academy of Energy Healing (right), announce a new collaboration to expand the reach and accessibility of energy healing modalities worldwide.

Dr. Nelson, CEO of Discover Healing, has trained more than 15,000 certified practitioners in 108 countries. His work focuses on helping people identify and release “trapped emotions” that can form a Heart-Wall®, often linked to emotional distress and physical discomfort.

By teaching practitioners to release emotional barriers around the heart, we empower people to live with greater love, health, and purpose.”

The collaboration highlights a natural progression in healing. Dr. Nelson’s work provides the foundational step of clearing accumulated emotional baggage from around the heart. Ahtayaa Leigh’s program, The Golden Ray Initiations™, then builds upon that clear foundation, offering a pathway to the next level of personal evolution by activating the inner guidance and clarity that becomes accessible once the heart is open.

“We are living in a time when the world is ready for profound healing,” said Dr. Nelson. “By training practitioners to release emotional barriers around the heart, we empower people to experience more love, health, and purpose. This partnership with Ahtayaa Leigh and the Academy of Energy Healing creates a powerful, complete path for transformation.”

Ahtayaa Leigh adds, “Once the heart is cleared of emotional baggage, there is an incredible strength and purpose waiting on the other side. It’s about moving from feeling stuck to feeling empowered.”

To launch the collaboration, Dr. Nelson and Ahtayaa Leigh will host a free online masterclass. Attendees will learn how emotional healing serves as the foundation for deeper personal growth and can register at academyofenergyhealing.com/free-masterclass-with-dr-bradley-nelson/

This partnership comes at a time when the global wellness market is experiencing unprecedented growth, with millions seeking effective, non-traditional approaches to manage stress and improve well-being. Dr. Nelson’s upcoming book, The Heart Code (Macmillan, December 2025), further highlights this growing interest, offering timely context for the collaboration.
