Each subscription also comes with free integrated digital signage features, giving businesses the ability to showcase promotions, announcements, and brand messages alongside entertainment.

Through the partnership with HDTV Supply, for a limited time every unit includes a free custom Android box with IR remote, simplifying setup and daily use. Companies can buy more boxes for separate channels showing, making it possible to tailor content across multiple screens.

To keep the service completely free, Atmosphere TV requires usage of 40hrs per month. If total streaming time falls below 40 hours per month, a nominal fee of $20/month applies. This ensures reliable access while supporting flexibility for businesses of all sizes.
