services, is proud to announce the opening of its newest location in Dubai, further expanding its global presence to serve the growing financial services market in the United Arab Emirates (UAE) and across the Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC).

BanQsi Dubai

This strategic expansion will allow BanQsi to better support financial institutions across the region with specialized integration services, bringing clarity and efficiency to complex core banking environments. By establishing a local presence, BanQsi underscores its commitment to supporting the UAE's position as a global hub for innovation and financial excellence, in line with the ambitions of UAE Vision 2030 and the country's wider digital transformation agenda.

"The UAE represents a dynamic and growing market where there's a clear need for the kind of Core Banking expertise we offer," said Tom Papagiannopoulos, CEO of BanQsi. "Opening our Dubai office allows us to work more closely with clients in the region, build local partnerships, and deliver the same high-quality service we're known for around the world."

With its new Dubai presence, BanQsi is committed to delivering tailored solutions, strengthening client relationships, and investing in local talent development to ensure sustainable to support long-term success in the region. The company will also explore opportunities to collaborate with regulators, fintech innovators, and academic institutions to support the UAE's broader economic diversification and knowledge-based economy goals.

"As we grow our global footprint with the opening of our Dubai office, our North American team remains fully focused on delivering the critical services our clients rely on,” said Mohsin Syed, Chief Operating Officer at BanQsi. “This expansion reflects our ability to scale while staying deeply committed to the long-term success of our partners in every region we serve—including right here at home.”

The Dubai office marks another milestone in BanQsi’s ongoing global growth strategy and reflects the company’s dedication to meeting clients where they are—with the expertise and on-the-ground support to drive transformation.
