BOSTON, MA, UNITED STATES, September 29, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Dr. Le Thu Medical Scholarship officially announces its call for applications, inviting undergraduate medical students across the United States to apply for this prestigious opportunity. This scholarship seeks to honor the values of compassion, resilience, and service—principles that have defined the remarkable career of Dr. Le Thu.

The scholarship is available to students currently enrolled in a medical degree program such as MBBS, MD, or an equivalent course of study. Applicants must demonstrate academic excellence through transcripts or academic achievements and exhibit a commitment to community service, leadership, or healthcare advocacy.

In addition to meeting these criteria, applicants are required to submit a personal essay responding to the following prompt:

“Dr. Le Thu’s career has been defined by compassion, resilience, and service. How do these values shape your vision of becoming a physician, and how will you carry them forward in your medical journey?”

Essays should be between 750–1,000 words, allowing students to share their perspectives on the role of empathy and dedication in the field of medicine.

Application Deadline and Winner Announcement

The deadline for scholarship applications is May 15, 2026, with the recipient announced on June 15, 2026. This scholarship aims to support promising medical students who embody the values of integrity, academic excellence, and community commitment.

About Dr. Le Thu

Dr. Le Thu is a highly respected emergency medicine physician with a career spanning more than four decades. Having received her medical training across multiple countries, Dr. Le Thu has worked extensively in high-pressure emergency departments, contributed to medical education as a mentor and lecturer, and championed for greater access to quality healthcare worldwide. Throughout her career, Dr. Le Thu has held teaching roles at institutions such as Brigham & Women’s Hospital/Harvard Medical School and Boston City Hospital, where she educated students, residents, and staff in advanced medical practices. She has also spoken at global medical conferences, sharing insights on emergency medicine, wilderness medicine, geriatric care, and preventive healthcare.

The scholarship reflects Dr. Le Thu's long-standing commitment to developing future leaders in medicine. By supporting students who demonstrate both academic excellence and a dedication to service, Dr. Le Thu aims to inspire the next generation of physicians to uphold the principles of compassion, resilience, and care for humanity.
