Artist Residency Spotlight: Lionel Thomas (France)

USMI's residency program welcomes exceptional creators who enrich our communities through their craft and mentorship. Among our current residents is French artist and painter Lionel Thomas, whose remarkable body of work and live demonstrations have inspired collectors, students, and families alike. During his residency, Thomas is sharing his process through community workshops, studio talks, and exhibitions hosted in partnership with USMI—showcasing how world-class art can catalyze healing, learning, and cultural exchange.

Upcoming Exhibition: Modigliani Collection

In the coming months, USMI will proudly present the 'Modigliani Collection,' an exclusive showcase hosted at our We Are Wolf Gallery, owned and operated by United Sacramento Mobile Int Inc. This collection will highlight works inspired by and honoring the legacy of Amedeo Modigliani, giving collectors and patrons a rare opportunity to acquire exceptional art pieces while supporting USMI's mission. The Modigliani Collection underscores our commitment to elevating both established and emerging artists in a world-class setting.

- Professional Tools: High-quality studios accessible without exploitative costs
- Royalties & Fair Compensation: Ensuring artists benefit from their work
- Global Platforms: Partnerships with galleries, hotels, and cultural institutions
- Community Integration: Artists embedded as teachers, healers, and creators
