She opens up about being featured on national TV, finding purpose in her community, and reinventing her career by hosting retreats in her restored castle. Read Trish's candid and uplifting account of rural château living, including:

Looking back, it's amazing how much life has changed in five years," Trish writes. "And if asked whether I'd do it again? Absolutely, without hesitation!"

Trish

- Becoming the village's beloved châtelaine and local celebrity
- Tackling challenging DIY projects and construction with confidence
- Appearing on 'Escape to the Château: DIY' on national TV
- Creating lasting bonds in a close-knit Pyrénées village
- Leaving boardrooms behind to lead transformative retreats for guests

This piece offers a compelling firsthand account of an American expat's journey into château ownership in rural France, blending personal anecdotes with practical insights on cultural adaptation and historic property restoration. It provides valuable perspectives for international
