alternative rock band Catch The Young has released a digital single, “안아줘 (In Your Arms).” It’s an emotional rock ballad that perfectly suits the transition into autumn. This track is the newest addition to the single albums from Catch The Young that have been released this year, including a remake track of the 90s hit song “You, Always (2025),” the band’s first instrumental single “The Young Wave,” and a bubbly summer love song “Ideal Type.”

“It warms my heart to be able to meet you again with our new song, ‘안아줘 (In Your Arms),’ right when the autumn leaves start falling after a hot summer.

We prepared this single with the hope of sending hugs to you all, just as the weather gets colder. I hope your heart can feel warmer just by listening to this song.” – Namhyun, Vocalist of Catch The Young “안아줘 (In Your Arms)” captures the mature emotions of longing for a previous love, dreaming about those unforgettable memories, reaching out for them in those dreams, and asking for a warm embrace. Blending a soaring guitar solo and soft vocals, this track seeks to convey the yearning that comes with a farewell.

“I’m very excited to be back after about 3 months since the release of ‘Ideal Type.’ I hope you enjoy and give much love to our new single, ‘안아줘 (In Your Arms).’ Let’s create a new chapter together with our own colors!” – Jungmo, Drummer of Catch The Young
