ABOUT KONA EARTH

The Kona Earth farm is situated in the heart of the famed Kona coffee belt. The 26-acre farm is nestled on the tropical slopes of the Hualalai volcano on Hawaii's Big Island. The temperate climate, rich volcanic soil, and ample rainfall create ideal growing conditions for producing some of the finest Arabica coffee beans on the planet. Prized for its smooth flavor and low acidity, coffee aficionados rank Hawaiian Kona coffee as one of the world's top specialty coffees.

As a US-based, family-owned business, Kona Earth supports fair wage labor and sustainable farming practices. Kona Earth coffee is nurtured from crop to cup and grown with Aloha by husband and wife owners Steve and Joanie Wynn. The beans are processed and micro-batch roasted on site, then shipped farm-direct for supreme freshness. With a consistent five-star customer rating and superlative customer service, Kona Earth delivers the quality associated with its authentic, Hawaiian Kona specialty coffee.
