

iPostal1 Joins the Universal Postal Union's Consultative Committee & Presents at the Universal Postal Congress in Dubai

As a member of the Consultative Committee of the UPU, iPostal1 will support the UPU's mission of promoting a sustainable and universal postal network.

MONTEBELLO, NY, UNITED STATES, September 29, 2025 / EINPresswire.com/ -- iPostal1, the leading provider of digital mailbox services, has announced its acceptance as a member of the Consultative Committee of the Universal Postal Union (UPU). The UPU is a specialized agency of the United Nations that coordinates postal policies among its 192 member countries.

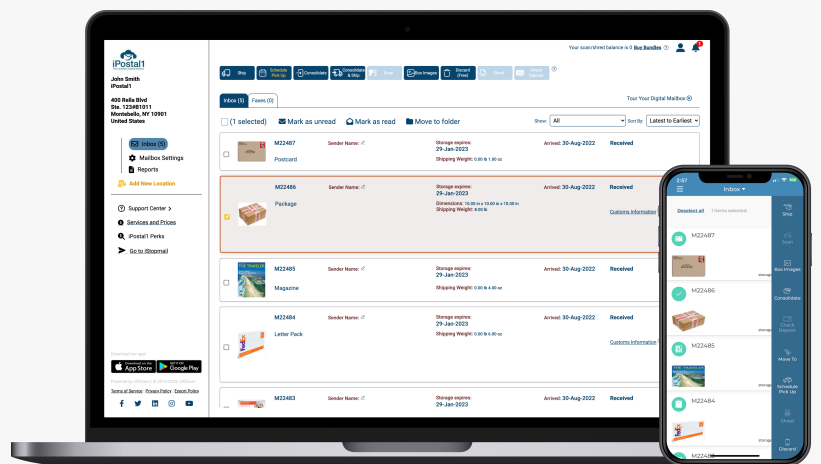

iPostal1 is proud to join the Consultative Committee, a diverse group of non-governmental organizations and private companies that advises the UPU and its members on key issues affecting the global postal sector. The committee serves as a vital link between the UPU and the broader postal ecosystem, helping to shape the future of mail and logistics worldwide.

"We are honored to be accepted into the UPU's Consultative Committee," said Jeff Milgram, CEO of iPostal1. "The iPostal1 digital mailbox model has been forging the future of postal delivery and receipt. Our proven model allows postal networks to make mail and parcel delivery more accessible, sustainable, and secure in a digital-first world. iPostal1 brings innovation not by replacing, but by empowering the current postal infrastructure - bridging the physical and digital worlds."
