For millennia, whistling has been a versatile means of human communication. Today, it emerges into the mainstream as an art form thanks to its presence in Dr. Dre's hip-hop productions, Cynthia Erivo's viral tunes, pop hits, and classical symphonies. Even Cirque du Soleil is touring with a world champion whistler. Adding to momentum, the upcoming documentary, Whistle, about the 2023 Masters - produced by Australia's Oscar-nominated Songbird Studios - recently received rave reviews at the 2025 Toronto International Film Festival.

The Masters of Musical Whistling is produced by Creative Being, an award-winning nonprofit dedicated to inspiring each individual to discover and express their creative spark. Hey SoCal Media Group is among many local partners supporting the festival and its goal to promote self-expression.

Two-time world champion, festival producer, and Creative Being president, Carole Anne Kaufman, known as the Whistling Diva, explains, "It's thrilling to share our art form with the world. We showcase musical whistling at its highest potential while creating a space where every
