EINPresswire.com/ -- SourceCo, a fast-growing provider of aftermarket aircraft parts and supply-chain solutions, today announced it has been certified by the Women's Business Enterprise National Council (WBENC WBE2502482) as a Women's Business Enterprise (WBE). The certification recognizes companies that are at least 51% owned, controlled, operated, and managed by women and have successfully completed WBENC's rigorous vetting process.

Our diverse leadership helps us deliver all three—faster sourcing, smarter logistics, and relentless customer care—so our airline and MRO partners can keep fleets flying”

Anthony Cordle, Executive Vice President

“Earning WBENC certification is a milestone that reflects who we are and how we operate,” said Anthony Cordle, Executive Vice President at SourceCo. “Aviation depends on speed, quality, and trust. Our diverse leadership helps us deliver all three—faster sourcing, smarter logistics, and relentless customer care—so our airline and MRO partners can keep fleets flying.”

WBENC is the nation's largest third-party certifier of businesses owned and operated by women. Its certification is widely accepted by thousands of U.S. corporations and many federal, state, and local government entities as the gold standard for supplier diversity programs.

“WBENC certification expands our ability to support customers that prioritize supplier diversity,” Cordle added. "From urgent AOG needs to planned inventory programs, customers can count on SourceCo for responsive service and measurable results."
