

ResolveXO Wins Real Estate Advisory Team of the Year at 2025 RICS Australia Awards

SYDNEY, NEW SOUTH WALES, AUSTRALIA, September 30, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- At the 2025 RICS Australia Awards, ResolveXO was recognised as Real Estate Advisory Team of the Year, achieving its third straight win and fourth since the category's inception.

This result reinforces ResolveXO's strong position in the category and reflects that the market increasingly values professional, transparent, and client-only advice.

ResolveXO's submission showcased its work with MinterEllison, one of Australia's largest law firms, as it faced a critical decision about the future of its headquarters. With the firm's Governor Macquarie Tower lease expiring in 2028, ResolveXO provided independent advice, underpinned by financial modelling and market expertise, to evaluate all potential options.

Following a comprehensive analysis, ResolveXO assisted MinterEllison in making a decision that secures operational efficiencies, enhances workplace flexibility, and supports their commitment to achieving net zero emissions by 2030.

The RICS Awards celebrate innovation and excellence across the built environment, recognising organisations and individuals who raise standards and drive impact within the real estate sector.

Judges at the awards described the ResolveXO submission as "impressive," underscoring the firm's reputation for delivering conflict-free, client-first advice.

"This award is proof that independence matters. Our clients come to us because they want advice that's professional and free of conflicts — not brokerage that's dressed up as advice.
