

Up, Up, and Away: Thomas J. Henry Sponsors Dazzling Plano Balloon Festival

Attorney and philanthropist debuts signature balloon as crowds soar past 90,000

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES,
September 30, 2025 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- The skies over Plano came alive this past weekend as more than 90,000 attendees flocked to Oak Point Park for the 46th Annual Plano Balloon Festival, highlighted by the debut of the Thomas J. Henry hot air balloon. The striking design, featuring the firm's bold branding, rose among dozens of balloons, drawing cheers during the festival's morning ascensions and evening glows.

As the official sponsor of the four-day festival, Thomas J. Henry elevated one of North Texas' most beloved traditions, which featured live entertainment, food vendors, and family-friendly activities in addition to the spectacular balloon displays.

"Just like a hot air balloon, the strength of a community rises when it's supported from the ground up," said Thomas J. Henry. "We're proud to lift off with the Plano community, not just through our legal work, but by being part of the moments that bring people together. Our new balloon is more than just a symbol; it's a celebration of who we are and who we serve.”

Festival-goers had the chance to interact with Henry’s law firm at a bustling booth on the grounds, where the team distributed branded merchandise and shared information about their services. Organizers praised the balloon’s addition to the lineup, calling it one of the weekend’s standout highlights.

Now in its 46th year, the Plano Balloon Festival remains one of the region’s most anticipated events, blending breathtaking aerial displays with a strong sense of community and philanthropy. With Henry’s support, this year’s celebration proved both a visual spectacle and a powerful reminder of how shared traditions bring people together.
