

Jan's Boutique: Delivering Custom Fittings, Inclusive Sizing & Last-Minute Service

NJ, UNITED STATES, September 30, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Jan's Boutique, New Jersey's premier destination for bridal, prom, evening, and "Mother of" gowns, is proud to announce the evolution of its customer-first model — bringing together in-house custom fittings, a generous return/change-of-mind policy, last-minute tailoring, and an inclusive size range that stretches from 000 to 26 (plus) — all while maintaining a robust off-the-rack inventory.

A Bespoke Experience, On Your Terms

At the heart of Jan's Boutique's service is its in-house fitting atelier. Rather than outsourcing alterations, Jan's employs a team of experienced seamstresses who work directly with clients to deliver a truly customized fit. Whether it's taking in the waist, adjusting the hem, or fine-tuning sleeve lengths, the in-house fitting team ensures clients walk away with a dress that feels made for them — because, in effect, it is.

Last-Minute Tailoring — When Time Is of the Essence

Life happens. When deadlines loom, Jan's Boutique steps in as a trusted ally. The company prioritizes last-minute tailoring services to rescue clients who find themselves in a wardrobe bind — missing a hemline adjustment or needing a quick tweak days (or sometimes hours) before the big event. With in-house capacity and streamlined workflows, Jan's can fast-track emergency fittings that many other boutiques cannot.

Sizes for Every Body

Inclusivity is embedded in Jan's DNA. Their expansive size range — from 000 through 26, plus sizes included — ensures that every client has access to a beautiful dress without feeling constrained. Whether a client is seeking a size 00 prom dress or a plus-size bridal gown, Jan's extensive collection supports both ends of the spectrum and everything in between.

Off-the-Rack Availability for Immediate Access

While custom fittings and tailoring are central, Jan's also maintains a robust off-the-rack inventory. With over 15,000 dresses in stock at its two-story Cherry Hill showroom, clients can select, try on, and purchase immediately — no waiting for production turnaround or complicated fulfillment delays.

Why Jan's Boutique Stands Apart

- One-stop solution: From selection to final fit, clients stay within the same boutique for every step.

- Responsive to change: The change-of-mind policy reduces buyer stress and fosters trust.
- Emergency-ready: The boutique's last-minute tailoring ensures clients are never stranded.
- Truly inclusive sizing: With size 000 to 26 coverage, every client finds options.
- Immediate fulfillment: Thousands of dresses ready to go today.
