

Mimi May Featured in Influential Women for Distinguished Public Service and City Leadership

LAKE WORTH BEACH, FL, UNITED STATES, September 30, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Empowering Residents, Advancing Civic Engagement, and Inspiring Community Leadership in Lake Worth Beach

Mimi May, featured in Influential Women's 2025 edition, is a committed educator and public servant who has served as the District 3 City Commissioner for Lake Worth Beach since April 2024. With a deep passion for community engagement and a steadfast dedication to public service, Mimi focuses on initiatives that enhance the quality of life for all residents while fostering collaboration across city departments and community stakeholders.

Mimi's educational background lays the foundation for her leadership. She earned a Degree in Psychology and Sociology with a focus on Elementary Education from Middlebury College, followed by a Master's in Education from Canisius University. With nearly two decades of teaching experience, she has instructed mathematics at Bak Middle School of the Arts and within the School District of Palm Beach County, shaping the academic growth and personal development of countless students. Her time in education instilled in her the skills of empathy, communication, and problem-solving—qualities she brings to every aspect of her civic work.

As City Commissioner, Mimi is known for her hands-on approach to governance, consistently advocating for policies that reflect community needs and priorities. She actively engages with residents, encourages public participation, and promotes initiatives that drive local policy development and civic progress. Her commitment to professional growth is evident through her participation in leadership development programs and municipal governance training, further strengthening her ability to serve effectively and inspire collaborative solutions.

Mimi also maintains active involvement in professional organizations that bridge education and public service, including the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics and the Florida League of Cities. These memberships reflect her dedication to lifelong learning and her belief in connecting professional expertise with meaningful community impact.

Whether in the classroom or the city council chambers, Mimi May combines passion, professionalism, and purpose to serve her community. Her unique blend of educational insight and civic leadership enables her to advocate effectively for residents, champion local initiatives, and foster positive change in Lake Worth Beach—continuing a legacy of engaged and thoughtful public service.
