Transparency, and Data-Driven HR
Solutions at Rockline Industries

Celebrated by Influential Women and featured in its 2025 edition, Alexa Levin, MBA, is a distinguished human resources professional specializing in compensation strategy, pay equity, and market analysis. As Compensation Manager at Rockline Industries, Alexa applies her expertise in salary band alignment, compensation structures, and data-driven decision-making to support organizational success while fostering equitable and competitive practices across the workforce.

Alexa's career spans a range of strategic HR roles where she has consistently delivered results. Prior to joining Rockline Industries, she served as Senior Compensation Analyst at Orion Advisor Solutions and at Caesars Entertainment Corporation, designing and implementing large-scale pay structures, ensuring FLSA compliance, and developing equity-focused compensation plans. Earlier roles with MGM Resorts International and Marriott Vacations Worldwide provided her with a strong foundation in operations analysis, data visualization, and revenue management, further shaping her comprehensive understanding of human capital strategy.

With a Master of Business Administration from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas (UNLV) Lee Business School, focusing on Human Resources, and a Bachelor of Science in Hospitality Management and Event Management from the University of Central Florida – Rosen College of Hospitality Management, Alexa combines advanced education with practical experience. She has also earned professional certifications in Excel Modeling, Business Analysis, and Data

Visualization, emphasizing her commitment to continuous professional growth and excellence.

Fluent in both English and French, Alexa brings a global perspective to her work, understanding diverse markets and workforce dynamics. She is passionate about aligning compensation strategies with organizational objectives, ensuring transparency, fairness, and measurable impact across the employee experience.

Beyond her professional accomplishments, Alexa maintains a strong personal connection to global communities, frequently traveling for pleasure and to visit family in Australia. Her curiosity and dedication to lifelong learning inform both her professional and personal life, reflecting a commitment to growth, equity, and meaningful engagement with the world around her.

Alexa Levin's work continues to set a standard for strategic, equitable, and data-informed HR leadership. Through her expertise in compensation and talent management, she not only supports organizational goals but also contributes to the broader mission of fostering fairness, transparency, and opportunity in today's dynamic workforce.
