EINPresswire.com/ -- Elite Property has completed a series of presentations in Manchester designed to introduce UK investors to the evolving opportunities in Dubai's property market.

The roadshow addressed subjects of increasing interest to international buyers, including Dubai's tax-efficient property environment, long-term residency options under the Golden Visa program, and the city's adoption of cryptocurrency as a means of transaction in real estate. Discussions also explored Dubai's positioning as a secure and globally connected hub for families and businesses.

In partnership with UAE developer Sobha Realty, Elite Property presented both residential and commercial projects to participants, emphasizing Dubai's growth as a destination for long-term investment and relocation.

The roadshow drew attention from participants exploring both residential and commercial opportunities. According to organizers, the initiative forms part of Elite Property's broader effort to expand connections with global investor communities and to facilitate dialogue about market trends in the UAE.
