

OX:N, OMEGA X's First Sub-Unit, Releases a New Digital Single, 'LOVE +'

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES,
September 30, 2025 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- After debuting as OMEGA X's first sub-unit group in June, OX:N has released a new digital single, "LOVE +." This is OX:N's first release after their debut EP, N. OMEGA X and OX:N member Xen participated in the composition, lyric writing, and chorus of the single, alongside the producer ByHVN, who collaborated with OMEGA X for their 3rd mini-album, iykyk, and is well known for his other work with K-pop artists such as Stray Kids, RYEOWOOK of Super Junior, BOL4, and GISELLE of aespa.

"I feel a sense of nostalgia in the best way to share a song that I've been personally keeping to myself with the world now. I hope 'LOVE +' can provide at least a little comfort, resonance, and love to all the listeners." - Xen, member of OMEGA X and OX:N

"LOVE +" is a groovy pop track that explores the longing to rediscover love even after the pain from a breakup. This track incorporates the unique use of vocoder effects and mixing techniques into OX:N's own dreamy and lyrical mood, creating a sonic experience that feels both familiar and new. With the release of their new single, members of OX:N hope to present their musical evolution and creative ambition as artists. Since their debut as a unit group, OX:N has been performing and meeting their fans in South Korea and other regions in Asia, including Tokyo, Osaka, Macau, and Shanghai.

"I'm very happy to be back with new music soon after our unit debut! I believe we are capable of showcasing even more various attempts in the future." - Yechan, member of OMEGA X and OX:N
