MADKID Announces 12th Single “Mad Pulse,” Opening Theme for TV Anime DIGIMON BEATBREAK

Single out December 24, 2025 / Music Video Premieres October 5

MINATO-KU, TOKYO, JAPAN, October 4, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Best known for their hit anime theme RISE from Anime The Rising of the Shield Hero series—which has surpassed 32 million views on YouTube and earned them international recognition—MADKID has continued to expand their global presence with live performances across North America, Europe, and Latin America. Now, the five-member group returns with a brand-new anime anthem: their upcoming single “Mad Pulse”, serving as the opening theme for the Fuji TV anime DIGIMON BEATBREAK. The single will be released on Wednesday, December 24, 2025.

The jacket artwork and full tracklist were revealed today. Designed in striking emerald green and purple tones, the cover features a bold motif symbolizing a “pulse.”

The single will include three songs:

“Mad Pulse” (DIGIMON BEATBREAK opening theme)

“Silence Shatter (feat. Nano)”, a collaboration with New York-born singer Nano, with whom MADKID toured across 11 North American cities this year

“We Go”, a new track created under the theme “a message from MADKID to themselves”

On the collaboration track “Silence Shatter (feat. Nano),” member YOU-TA commented:

“This song portrays the courage to face silence and loneliness. The message is about proving yourself by raising your voice and opening the path to the future. Please enjoy the emotional vocal interplay we created together with Nano.”

The music video for “Mad Pulse” will premiere on YouTube at 8:00 PM JST on October 5. Prior to the premiere, a special live broadcast featuring the members will stream at 7:00 PM.
