We are honored that the Department of Defense allowed us to utilize the Hall of Heroes as this year's location to elevate our cornerstone celebration”

Brad Bentley

The ESGR statement of support signing ceremony will honor employers who have demonstrated exceptional assistance for Guard and Reserve service members, making it possible for citizen-soldiers to balance their military service obligations with civilian career success.

Brad Bentley, President of FASTPORT, emphasized the importance of the annual ESGR event, stating, “This ceremony salutes the vital partnership between employers and the military community, underscoring the significance of ensuring operational readiness.” He added, “We are honored that the Department of Defense allowed us to utilize the Hall of Heroes as this year's location to elevate our cornerstone celebration.”

The Hall of Heroes is dedicated to the memory of Medal of Honor recipients and serves as a sacred space honoring America's most distinguished service members. Hosting this recognition event in such a historic setting reflects the profound importance of civilian employers'
