

Nimbello and Revolution Group Team Up to Deliver AP Automation for Plex Users

Nimbello Teams Up with Revolution Group to Deliver AI-Powered AP Automation for Plex Manufacturing Customers

GRANGER, IN, UNITED STATES, October

1, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Nimbello, a leader in Accounts Payable (AP) automation purpose-built for the complexities of manufacturing finance, today announced a strategic partnership with Revolution Group, a trusted Rockwell Automation Gold Systems Integrator. This collaboration ensures that manufacturers relying on the Plex Smart Manufacturing Platform can now access a native, AI-powered AP solution designed to eliminate manual bottlenecks and drive operational efficiency.

This partnership is a huge win for Plex customers who are ready to move past slow, costly manual AP processes”

Milind Agtey, Founder and President at Nimbello

The manufacturing sector, especially those running high-volume ERP systems like Plex, faces unique challenges in accounts payable—specifically managing complex, multi-line invoices that require accurate three-way matching. This partnership directly addresses that need by combining Nimbello’s specialized AP technology with Revolution Group’s deep integration and Plex implementation expertise.

“This partnership is a huge win for Plex customers who are ready to move past slow, costly manual AP processes,” said Milind Agtey, Founder and President. “We built Nimbello to excel at the hardest part of AP: automated, multi-line three-way matching. By partnering with the experts at Revolution Group, we are delivering our solution seamlessly and completely integrated within the Plex environment. This means immediate gains in efficiency and accuracy, allowing manufacturers’ finance teams to focus on strategy, not paperwork.”

The integrated solution enables Plex users to:

- Achieve Seamless Integration: Benefit from a pre-built, non-disruptive integration with Plex, ensuring fast deployment and immediate data synchronization.
- Maximize Automation: Leverage Nimbello’s advanced OCR for invoice capture, intelligent three-way PO matching, and automated approval routing.

- Gain End-to-End Expertise: Access the combined industry knowledge of Nimbello, an AP automation specialist, and Revolution Group, a trusted Rockwell Automation Gold Systems Integrator.

Together, Nimbello and Revolution Group are empowering manufacturers to transform their purchase-to-pay cycle, ensuring faster vendor payments, better cash flow visibility, and reduced processing costs.
