

Charleston's Black Dog Junk Removal Expands Team to Meet Lowcountry Junk Removal Demand

CHARLESTON, SC, UNITED STATES,
October 2, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ --

As Charleston and the greater Lowcountry continue to experience rapid growth, demand for reliable junk removal has risen as well. From new housing developments to busy commercial areas, there is a constant need for quick and dependable hauling services. Black Dog Junk Removal is expanding its team and resources to keep pace with this growth, ensuring residents and businesses across Charleston, Mt. Pleasant, and Summerville can count on timely, professional service

That's why Black Dog Junk Removal is pleased to announce that it has added a new crew member, Charles Meade, to the pack! Charles will be joining as a general helper, lending support on projects across the Lowcountry and helping Black Dog continue to deliver fast, dependable junk removal services.

With Charles on board, the Black Dog crew can handle larger projects more efficiently and continue to honor the company's same and next-day service promise. An extra set of hands means quicker loading, faster turnaround times, and more flexibility in scheduling, leading to more convenience for our customers.

Charles, a local graduate of Fort Dorchester High School, brings a strong work ethic and enthusiasm for learning about service work. "Charles has already shown lots of enthusiasm to be
