

New Bilingual Comedy Podcast 'Nihongo To English' Launches October 2, 2025

New bilingual comedy podcast blends Japanese & English humor, culture, and absurdism. Perfect for Japanese learners and English learners.

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, October 1, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Comedian/performer Michael Allen (a.k.a. GoatVsFish) and stand-up comedian Michelle MaliZaki are set to launch their brand-new bilingual comedy podcast, Nihongo To English, premiering October 2, 2025.

The show brings together Japanese and English conversation, playful cultural banter, and absurdist comedy. True to its title, "To" means "and" in Japanese, symbolizing the mix of languages and perspectives at the heart of the podcast.

Listeners can expect free-flowing conversations, bursts of offbeat humor, and even the occasional uniform as the hosts explore life between two languages, two cultures, and two comedic worlds.

“

We wanted to create a space where Japanese and English meet in the funniest, weirdest, and most natural ways”

Nihongo To English will be available on Apple Podcasts, Spotify, and other platforms where podcasts are streamed starting October 2.

With their combined backgrounds in stand-up, character work, and bilingual storytelling, Allen and MaliZaki deliver something fresh for comedy fans, language learners, and anyone curious about navigating cultural intersections with humor.
