Supply, a CES company, has expanded their service division to Bolton & Hay in Des Moines, Iowa. This growth broadens CES’ offerings in Iowa, enhancing its ability to deliver top-tier restaurant equipment, supplies, and service solutions across the region.

As part of this expansion, the service division will support both Wilson Restaurant Supply and Bolton & Hay, strengthening their long-standing reputations for exceptional customer service and product expertise. By adding comprehensive service capabilities, CES is reinforcing its commitment to the Des Moines and Cedar Falls markets, offering foodservice businesses high-quality equipment backed by professional support and tailored solutions.

The new service division provides a full range of offerings to meet all equipment needs, including preventative maintenance, prompt repairs, and professional installation of new equipment. On-call repair services are also available for urgent needs, supported by a wide selection of replacement parts to ensure fast, reliable solutions.

“This expansion aligns perfectly with our strategy of combining the personalized values of a family-owned business with the resources of a larger company,” said Tyler Jeffrey, CEO of CES.

“By strengthening our service capabilities in Iowa, we can provide even greater support to foodservice operators and continue building trusted, long-term relationships across the region.”

To lead this operation, Wilson Restaurant Supply has appointed two new team members: Chris Douglas, Field Installer, and Colton Franzen, Installation Coordinator and Project Manager. Both bring extensive industry experience, and their expertise will be instrumental in ensuring seamless installations, driving service excellence and supporting CES' mission of growth and innovation.

This move further positions CES as a comprehensive partner to restaurant and foodservice operations, combining unmatched product expertise with reliable service and support. This step underscores CES' vision to lead in food equipment, supplies, and service across the Midwest and beyond. The CES growing family of companies includes CES Nationwide, CES Hiebing, Dubick Fixture and Supply, March Equipment, McCormick Service, Ramar Supply, Total Restaurant Supply, United Fast Food and Beverage, Wilson Restaurant Supply, and Windrock Enterprises and Bolton & Hay.
