

Skin I'm In® Fashion Week: Flight 2025 Takes Off in Houston at Lone Star Flight Museum

Aviation-themed runway returns Nov 2, uniting designers and talent to champion real-world representation. Partial proceeds benefit Be More Adaptive®.

HOUSTON, TX, UNITED STATES, October 1, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Skin I'm In® Fashion Week (SIIMFW) returns with Flight 2025, an immersive, aviation-themed runway experience at the Lone Star Flight Museum on Sunday, November 2, 2025. The production unites leading and emerging designers with a clear purpose: Every BODY Should Be Represented.

A Runway with a Mission

Flight 2025 reimagines the fashion show as a boarding gate to the future, pairing high design and production with visibility, originality, and respect for all people. Expect couture and streetwear collections presented with narrative staging inside a working aviation environment.

Flight 2025 is about building a world where everyone is visible and valued. Fashion is our vehicle; humanity is our destination."

Sonyia Baring Graham, Co-Founder & CEO, Skin I'm In®

What Distinguishes Flight 2025

- Immersive Environment: Aviation-inspired staging, VIP "first-class" touchpoints, and theatrical sequencing across the museum floor.
- Artistry First: Collections emphasizing craft and storytelling that reflect global aesthetics and Houston's creative community.

Adaptive clothing designer, Muroj Negha, debuts her cutting edge line to return to 2025 Skin I'm In Fashion Week, showcasing diverse models with disabilities.

•Impact Beyond the Runway: A portion of proceeds supports Be More Adaptive®, a nonprofit advancing access and empowerment for people of all abilities.
