global leader in gaming advisory, is proud to announce a strategic partnership with the Blackfeet Nation to provide general advisory support for Glacier Peaks Casino & Hotel in Browning, Montana. This collaboration underscores SCCG's commitment to fostering long-term growth and success in tribal gaming operations, backed by more than three decades of proven expertise and partnerships across Indian Country and the global gaming landscape.

The Blackfeet Nation, one of the largest and most historically significant tribes in North America, is renowned for its deep traditions, rich cultural heritage, and strong stewardship of its lands. With a reservation spanning more than 3,000 square miles on the eastern edge of Glacier National Park, the Nation has consistently embraced opportunities that both honor its heritage and expand prosperity for its people. Gaming has been a cornerstone of that vision, fueling community development, employment, and investment in future generations.

At the heart of these efforts is Glacier Peaks Casino & Hotel, the premier entertainment destination of the Blackfeet Nation. Located just minutes from Glacier National Park, Glacier Peaks combines a Las Vegas-style gaming experience with world-class hospitality, featuring hundreds of slot machines, live table games, a 90-key hotel, dining, and entertainment that attracts both locals and travelers from around the world.

Through this partnership, SCCG will provide advisory support on areas including governance and planning, programming and design strategy, and engagement with tribal, regulatory, and financial stakeholders. By leveraging SCCG's decades of experience delivering successful projects across tribal and commercial gaming, this partnership will enhance the long-term vision and operational success of Glacier Peaks Casino.

Stephen Crystal, Founder and CEO of SCCG Management, shared: "It is an honor to partner with the Blackfeet Nation, whose cultural legacy and commitment to economic development have made them a model of tribal leadership. Glacier Peaks Casino is not only a hub for entertainment but also a vital driver of opportunity and prosperity for the Blackfeet Nation. We look forward to bringing our decades of experience in tribal gaming to support their vision and future growth."
