

The First 'You Are Awesome' Concert: Celebrating Love and Legacy Through Music

Samuel ran Chen (2006 - 2025) was a beloved son, brother, and friend. He left this world too soon, but his enthusiasm and zest for life live on.

LONG ISLAND AND QUEENS, NY, UNITED STATES, October 2, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Presented with honor by the Samuel Chen Lives on Foundation, the first annual "You Are Awesome" Concert—a journey themed "Remembrance and Legacy: Music and Love"—is set for Sunday, October 5, 2025, at 7:00 PM at the Harvest Church of New York (54-47 Little Neck Parkway, Little Neck, NY 11362).

This is a free musical spectacular dedicated to the community, aiming to share hope and connection through the transformative power of music. The star-studded lineup includes performances by Pianist Jiacheng Xiong of the Curtis Institute of Music and celebrated Vocalist Jamie Wu. They will be joined by a distinguished roster of artists: Qianci Liu (prominent New York-based cellist and producer), Cellist Xia Wu, Musician Sherry Li, Pianist Jingyang Dong, Violinist Yeshuang Chen, Composer Meng Wang, and Percussionist Yi Ru.

All community members are warmly invited to attend this inspiring event. While admission is free, the concert gratefully accepts generous donations to support ongoing community music education and development.

We extend our special gratitude for the vital support provided by the Paulus Hook Music Foundation, Beyond Barriers Foundation, Wanyi Faith Foundation, and Ru Music Studio.
