

Dr. Thomas Lockhart III Curates Signature Image for Pigment International's Pigmented Black Fine Art Faire

NEW ORLEANS, LA, UNITED STATES, October 2, 2025

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Internationally acclaimed artist and gallerist Dr. Thomas Elias Lockhart III has been selected to curate the official image representing Pigment International for the highly anticipated Pigmented Black Fine Art Faire, taking place October 30 – November 2, 2025, at the renowned Zhou B Art Center in Chicago.

As the owner of the Lockhart Art Gallery and a celebrated visual artist with collectors worldwide, Dr. Lockhart brings both vision and artistry to this distinguished honor. With a background in graphic design and a lifelong passion for fine art, his work is known for its rich diversity of style, medium, and vibrant use of color. His creative expression captures not only aesthetic brilliance but also deep cultural resonance, making him an ideal voice for an event celebrating Black fine art at the highest level.

"This is a unique opportunity to represent such a prestigious event," said Dr. Lockhart. "Pigment International has long been a champion of elevating Black voices in the arts, and to contribute to this important moment is both humbling and inspiring."

The Pigmented Black Fine Art Faire, organized by Pigment International, is one of the premier showcases of Black fine art globally, bringing together artists, collectors, curators, and cultural leaders for four days of exhibitions, discussions, and community building. Dr. Lockhart's curated image will serve as a defining symbol of the event, reflecting its mission of excellence, creativity, and cultural impact.
